Headline:
Windy with spells of rain for many.

This Evening and Tonight:
Rather cloudy. Outbreaks of rain affecting northern areas in the evening, with some patchy light rain elsewhere. Drier overnight, although still with some patchy rain over the hills. Remaining windy for all, with the strongest winds in the far north. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Monday:
Spells of patchy rain and drizzle across western hills gradually easing through the morning. Cloud then generally clearing from the south during the afternoon, bringing increasingly sunny conditions. Winds easing. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Warm with long sunny periods on Tuesday. Sunny spells on Wednesday and feeling warm, but turning cloudier later. Sunny spells on Thursday but turning colder overnight.
